The fire department was called out alout 2.30 Sunday afternoon for a brush fire on the lands of Porter and Bushnell, near Hunter's avenue, which spread to the land of other nearby neighbors. At one time the flames spread very close to some nearby houses, but through the efforts of Chief Chennette and his men, with the aid of some of the villagers, the fire was checked. Only chemical was used but a line of hose had been laid to be used if necessary. D. Donais and J. Paradis with their machines brought the ladder and chemical trucks to the fire. Superintendent Pingree of the mill held his company in readiness in case of necessary.

Several friends from other churches were included in the attendants at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning when the retiring pastor, Rev. William J. Crawford, preached impressively on A Well Spent Life. The scripture lesson was the second chapter of First Corinthians and the fourth chapter of Second Timothy. At the conclusion of his sermon Rev. Mr. Crawford addressed his parishioners, thanking them for their loyalty to him in encouraging him with their fairful efforts while he was trying to do his best. He urged them to give his successor their best support. Help him and sustain him, and in so doing he will help and sustain you. May God keep your hearts and mine through the coming days, he said. Rev. Mr. Crawford especially thanked the members of the official board for their co-operation, saying "we separate knowing each other better." This also concluded the services of Miss Edith M. THIS IS NATIONAL GINGHAM

The Boston Store Has a Very Attractive Display

For children's wear few fabrics are woven which can in any measure take the place of Gingham. It is sturdy and durable, and the colors and patterns, particularly the new ones are very attractive. For house or porch dresses, too, it has few equals.

Our Spring Display Is Now Complete

DOMESTIC DRESS GINGHAM This 27-inch Gingham is of excellent quality, and we have it in the popular check patterns. The colors are navy, black, pink and light blue-
